

I am very happy with the current laws governing the "No Call List". I enjoy spending time with my family in the evenings not worrying about telemarketers interrupting. Please do not try to fix something that is not broken.